ABOUT

I am the person who holds the ladder for you as you climb to be the best version of yourself; personally, and professionally. In addition, when you get to the top of that ladder, transitioning from success to significance, I make sure it's leaning against the right building!

- John has over 30 years of training experience in personal and professional leadership development, as well as a certification in the John Maxwell Leadership Content.
- John has taught leadership in all levels from emerging leaders to executives across all verticals of businesses. These include medical, manufacturing, financial, and higher education, to name a few.
- John's passion is enhancing communication for clients that range from internal teammates to external customers. John believes the number one language spoken in today's world is the language of your audience. John has the ability to teach this language to his audience.
- John's background is in the areas of meta-cognitive growth and behavioral enhancement. He uses these skills to train, coach, and teach his audience to become the greatest versions of themselves.
